

Townsend Wins Praise for Aid

Assemblyman L. E. (Larry) Townsend has been honored by councilmen from 14 area cities for being a "good neighbor" during the four months the cities were without representation in Sacramento.

Townsend, a Torrance Democrat and the incumbent in the 67th Assembly District, was praised for his efforts on behalf of the 46th District, following the death of the late Charles E. Chapel.

The 46th District was not represented in Sacramento for nearly four months in 1967 following Chapel's death.

A RESOLUTION honoring Townsend was presented at a dinner meeting of the South Bay Councilman's Association last week. Chairman J. O. (Lee) Solomon presented the resolution, which praised Townsend for "outstanding service to the cities of the 46th Assembly District."

"This assistance facilitated the orderly and efficient conduct of city and state affairs and provided service to the affected cities that might have otherwise been denied," Solomon said.

ONE OF THE major legislative matters handled by Townsend for the 46th District was a bill which provided for the expansion of the financial capabilities of the South Bay Hospital District.

Cities honoring the Torrance Assemblyman included Carson, El Segundo, Gardena, Hawthorne, Hermosa Beach, Inglewood, Lawndale, Lomita, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes Estates, Redondo Beach, Rolling Hills, Rolling Hills Estates, and Torrance.

FIVE HIGH SCHOOLS

With the exception of the continuation high school, a school lunch program is provided in every public school in Torrance.

Warrior Trails

By Cathy Focarazzo

This week was an activity-packed one at West High School.

Annual Warrior Week commenced Monday, Sept. 30, with Senior Capri and Bermuda Day which was carried by the lower classes through the following, designated days, ending Friday with All-School Bermuda and Capri Day, the only week where the student body could enjoy the comforts of casual clothes. High school is usually a competing showplace for the latest styles.

During this day, 5-cent tickets were sold by the drill team and pep squad to the girls, and the Lettermen competed to sell theirs to the boys.

The idea of "Brave and Squaw Day" was to see which sex sells the least, and therefore, they were the "slaves" for a day, carrying on any duties that the victors asked of them, simply by presenting a 5-cent ticket. The results were much to the boys' dismay, they were the losers! The usually calm West High campus was in an uproar with embarrassed boys carrying books and girls' purses to class!

Wednesday was an all-school assembly which brought the great highly-Wacky Olympics, a West High spoof on the real Olympics in Mexico City.

Today, a giant pep rally is scheduled, hopefully rounding up spirit as we prepare to play or nearby rivals, the South High Spartans. It also brings the results of the Haiwatha and Pocahantus contest winners, who will cheer tonight at the football game.

West is really keyed up about playing the South High Spartans who will be a real test and our first league game of the season.

Competition runs hot as it usually does when neighboring schools clash, but spirit is amazingly fiery.

"Hammer the Spartans" is our motto this week.

Freeway Route Topic At Homeowners' Meet

Representatives of the State Division of Highways will discuss the Torrance Freeway with members of the Southwood Riviera Homeowners Association Monday.

The meeting, first of the new year, will be held at the Meadow Park Elementary School, 230th Street and Hawthorne Boulevard, at 8 p.m.

Sid Elicks and Vern Hall, of the highway department's planning division, will discuss the alternate routes proposed for the freeway, then answer questions from the members.

The association's Freeway Committee has secured nearly 1,200 signatures on a petition opposing the Red-Brown freeway route which would cut through the area. All Southwood Riviera residents are invited to attend the meeting. Len Wyarden, resident, said.

Twelve Win Photograph Competition

Photographs by 12 El Camino College students were displayed in the Fine Arts-Photography building at the Los Angeles County Fair. Winners in the college photography competition include Janet Watt, a silver medal; Gary Kessler and Marjorie Kerstein, bronze medals; and Ron Langseth, honorable mention.

ANN LANDERS

Rules for Marriage

Dear Ann Landers: Before I married many many years ago, an older person I had a lot of respect for gave me 12 rules for a happy marriage. This person was not educated and neither am I, but I think the rules are good enough so they don't need to be dressed up in fancy language. Here they are and I hope you think they are worth printing.

1. Never both be angry at once.
2. Never yell at each other unless the house is on fire.
3. Yield to the wishes of the other as an exercise in self-discipline if you can't think of a better reason.
4. If you have a choice between making yourself or your mate look good, choose your mate.
5. If you have any criticism, make it lovingly.
6. Never bring up a mistake of the past.
7. Neglect the whole world rather than each other.
8. Never let the day end without saying at least one kind or complimentary thing to your life's partner.
9. Never meet without an affectionate welcome.
10. Never let the sun go down on an argument unresolved.
11. When you do wrong, make sure you have talked it out and asked for forgiveness.
12. Remember, it takes two to make a quarrel. The one with the least sense is the one who will be doing the most talking.—STILL HAPPY

Dear Still Happy: Here are your rules, just as you sent them. There's nothing wrong with your language. I don't know when I've seen so much practical advice packed into so few words. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Dear Ann Landers: Is it possible to look at a woman and not see her? Or am I losing my marbles?

I am deeply in love with Francesca. She has just announced that she wants nothing more to do with me. According to her, I must be ashamed of her because I passed her in my car (she was driving hers), looked straight into her face and did not acknowledge her.

Francesca is a very truthful person. If she says I did it, then I did it. Please explain this. I am beginning to doubt my sanity.—ULCEROUS

Dear Ul: It is possible to "see" someone and not be aware of it. This is undoubtedly what happened to you. An individual who is preoccupied or in motion may fail to recognize his own mother.

Francesca must be an extremely immature lady if she would terminate your relationship because of this one incident.

Dear Ann Landers: I've started to date a very classy guy who spent last summer in Europe. He has returned full of French, Italian, and Latin phrases. Last night when he said good night, he added, "Semper fidelis." Can you help me come up with a polite way to tell him to knock it off?—ME

Dear Me: Try this:
What's pat in Latin
Or chic in Greek
I always distinguish
More clearly in English

What awaits you on the other side of the marriage veil? How can you be sure your marriage will work? Read Ann Landers' booklet "Marriage — What To Expect." Send your request to Ann Landers in care of the Press-Herald enclosing 50c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1968, Publishers Hall Syndicate
